

one+

Local Commitment

Palace Resorts maintains its commitment to the community and nature through its foundation, which promotes sustainable life for local residents and the native environment. The brand recycles more than 124 tons of paper and plastic a year, ensures the reuse of all discarded hotel furniture, monitors boiler and furnace emissions, preserves a protected beach in Cancún for more than 800 endangered turtles and provides treatment for locals with life-threatening illnesses and psychological disorders.